HELLO AND WELCOME

Hello and welcome to our 44th edition of Aspen Filmfest!

The joy of this festival is to gather with you, our film community, to share and celebrate some of the best cinema from around the globe from the past year.

I have had the pleasure of seeing some incredible films this year, and have the privilege of presenting several of them to you for our first full festival in the Aspen Film Isis Theatre since 1986. It is really exciting for Aspen Film to now have our own programming home.

Despite feeling the reverberations throughout the entertainment industry of both a writers' and a SAG-AFTRA strike, we once again were gifted with a most impressive roster of films which will take you through a full gamut of emotions. In addition to some timely and potent documentaries, we have a heavy dose of comedy, and will transport you to some surprising and far-off places.

Messages of love, tenacity, truth, family, and freedom shine through many of our selections, and we encounter outstanding and unforgettable characters. One of the most amazing things about cinema is that it reemphasizes the fact that humans will be humans no matter where in the world they may reside. Emotion is something we all share, and sometimes we can't help being affected by what we've just watched - particularly on the big screen, having shared an experience in the dark. There's nothing like it, and we are confident that the transportive quality of cinema can enrich, enlighten, educate, and entertain - the mission of Aspen Film.

We look forward to seeing you at the Aspen Film Isis Theatre for Filmfest 2023. We promise that it will have an impact on you, no matter whether you see one film or all 16 films in the festival. This is the magic of the movies.
